Blue Beaker brings their fun and educational science show to Fern Resort. Kids get a chance to try their hands at great science experiments and learn about the world in an interactive way.

The Speaking of Wildlife show is a leader in native species education. Audiences get to meet and interact with live animals and learn about wildlife and habitat.

The Staff Holiday Showtime Show is a perennial favourite where staff from many departments at Fern get to shine on stage. The 45-minute performance is a spirited mix of review-style dance routines and impersonations with a holiday twist.

Jamie Williams wraps up the weekend. A stage setup that usually consists of ten guitars, banjo, two mandolins, electric violin, piano/keyboard, saxophone, kick drum, snare, bongos, chimes, shakers and an arsenal of harmonicas is only the beginning of Jamie Williams' amazingly diverse level of entertainment.
